IV. Standing Committee Updates:

- Sees Candies (Cynthia Barden & LeeAnn Mahan) –
Cynthia reported that there were no orders from those order forms sent out to local businesses. Marcia commented that we might be better served by going in person with the information, to be better assured it “lands on the right desk”. Cynthia agreed, however that kind of effort would require significantly more time and effort, i.e.; not a “one person” job. All agreed there were pros & cons to the See’s program; not a bad experience for our first effort. It was decided to participate in the Winter timeframe only; as two programs, so close together was not a good way to go.
- Pancake Breakfast (Julia Earle) –
There was a breakfast held last month over the Thanksgiving break and it appeared to be a success. Our next breakfast is Sunday, January 31st .

Respectfully submitted by Steven Johnson

-Cynthia mentioned she was approached with the notion of “why do we have so many fundraisers? Why don’t we just have a single “donate to your school” drive; and that it for the year? A lengthy discussion ensued, noting that this topic has been broached before. We all agreed there are pros and cons on both sides.
